

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR AN EXTRAORDINARY LEARNING EXPERIENCE THIS SUMMER?

2012 PRACTICUM ON EXPERIENTIAL PEACEBUILDING

JUNE 16-24
COSTA RICA

Outward Bound Peacebuilding is now accepting applications for an expedition that combines a unique outdoor experience with experiential learning techniques in a multi-cultural environment. Designed for working professionals and graduate and college students who want to get out of the classroom to apply and advance their leadership and conflict resolution skills.

The Expedition:

- 7 days backpacking/hiking (June 16-24th)
- Waterfall rappel
- Practical experience in conflict resolution, leadership development and facilitating experiential learning processes
- Overnight solo experience
- Home stay and service project with a Costa Rican Family
- Joint program with the UPEACE Centre for Executive Education, U.N. mandated University for Peace
